This could include, for example, converting some or all of your principal residence into an income-earning property, such as a rental suite. It could also include converting a property used for short-term rentals, such as Airbnb or VRBO, to long-term rentals.

Important - all gains arising from the disposition of residential property (including rental property and assignment sales) owned for less than 365 days are deemed to be fully taxable business income unless a particular exception is met (such as the disposition

B. Questions to Answer

If yes, please provide details

1. Do you want your tax refund deposited directly into your account at a financial institution?
2. Are you a Canadian citizen?
3. Do you authorize CRA to give your name, address, date of birth, and citizenship to Elections Canada to update the National Register of Electors?
4. Did you receive interest, dividends, or benefits from a business where a relative is a key party (in terms of ownership or involvement)?
5. Are you a U.S. citizen, green card holder, or were you, or your parents born in the United States? You may have U.S. filing obligations.
6. Are you an Indigenous person? Special tax rules may apply.
7. Are you or any of your dependants disabled? If so, provide Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate. The transfer rules allow claims for certain dependent relatives. In addition, are you, or would you like to provide support to a disabled person? Tax planning opportunities may be available, such as establishing a registered disability savings plan.

Persons with disabilities may also receive tax relief for the cost of disability supports (e.g. sign language services, talking textbooks, etc.) incurred for employment or education. If you or your dependant are disabled but do not have a Form T2201, please provide details so we can explore whether you are eligible for special credits or benefits.
8. Are you the caregiver for any infirm family members? Did you provide in-home care for an infirm dependent relative?
9. If you have children up to the age of 17, have you received the Canada child benefit (CCB)? The CCB is a tax-free, income-sensitive, benefit paid monthly to help with the cost of raising children.

10. Have there been any other significant life events in the past year, such as the death or impairment of a loved one? There can be tax planning opportunities.
11. Did you buy a home in 2024? You may qualify for the new residential property GST/HST rebate and/or the first-time home buyer credit ($1,500).
12. Have you made any contributions to a gifting tax shelter?
13. Did you receive any significant prizes or awards from your or a related person's employment?
14. Did you receive a retroactive lump-sum payment over $3,000 (for example, spousal support)? In certain cases, some tax relief may be available.

C. Additional Information – New Clients Must Provide

1. Name, address, date of birth, social insurance number (SIN) for yourself, spouse/common-law partner and any dependants.
2. All CRA correspondence for the past three years.
3. Details of previously claimed capital gain exemptions, business investment losses and cumulative net investment loss accounts.
4. A listing of income-earning assets (such as rental properties) and investment accounts.
5. Details of amounts carried forward from previous years (ex. losses, donations, RRSP).

D. Other

1. UPDATE! Capital gains/losses – Net capital gains realized from June 25, 2024 onwards are proposed to be included in income at a 2/3 rate, an increase from 50%. However, annual capital gains of $250,000 or less after this date would continue to effectively benefit from the 50% rate due to a new deduction. Modified rules apply to corporations. Parliament is currently prorogued until March 24, 2025, meaning that there is uncertainty about whether this proposal will become law. CRA has stated that the personal tax return will be updated to reflect the proposal.
2. UPDATE! Alternative minimum tax (AMT) – The AMT ensures that taxpayers pay a minimum amount of tax, even when using legitimate tax incentives. Historically, AMT applied when tax incentives, such as the capital gains exemption, significantly reduced an individual's regular income tax. The computation of AMT has changed as of January 1, 2024; broadly, the changes target higher-income individuals, with lower and mid-income individuals generally at reduced risk of AMT exposure.

3. UPDATE! Volunteer firefighters and search and rescue volunteers tax credits – The amounts for these credits are doubled to $6,000, increasing the maximum tax relief to $900 for each credit, applicable to the 2024 and subsequent taxation years.
4. NEW! Digital platform operators – Commencing in 2024, digital platform operators (e.g. Airbnb, Etsy, Uber) must report seller information to CRA. This includes identification details, income earned by the Canadian sellers, and, for rentals, specifics of the rental property. CRA will be able to use the information provided for their compliance activities.
5. Underused Housing Tax (UHT) – If you are neither a Canadian resident nor a permanent resident, you may have a filing and tax obligation with respect to Canadian residential property that you own or are on the title of. Please contact us to discuss if you feel there may be exposure to this tax.
6. First Home Savings Account (FHSA) – FHSAs can be set up by first-time home buyers, allowing annual contributions of up to $8,000, to a lifetime limit of $40,000. Like an RRSP, contributions are deductible from income. If FHSA funds are withdrawn to acquire an eligible property, the withdrawal is not taxable. If you are planning to buy your first home in the near term, contact us before the purchase for planning possibilities.
7. Canadian Dental Care Plan (CDCP) – Canadian Dental Care Plan (CDCP) – The CDCP provides coverage for uninsured Canadians with an annual family income of less than $90,000. Individuals must apply to be covered.
8. Instalments required for 2025 – A pre-authorized debit arrangement is an online service-payment option which authorizes CRA to withdraw a pre-determined payment amount directly from a bank account on a specific date to pay taxes. This may help avoid penalties on late and/or missing instalment payments. CRA interest rate on late or insufficient instalments for the beginning of 2025 is 8%. Such interest is not deductible.
9. MyCRA mobile App – This web app allows you to access and view key portions of your tax information, such as your notice of assessment, tax return status, benefit and credit information, and RRSP and TFSA contribution room.
10. CRA's My Account – Taxpayers can set up an online account with CRA that provides tax filing information and communications in addition to the information in MyCRA mobile App.

11. CRA Online Services – Account alerts – Individuals can register with CRA to be notified by email when CRA's record of an individual's address has changed, banking information for direct deposit has changed or if mail sent by CRA was returned.

12. Additional provincial/territorial credits and programs may be available.
